

Euro-Atlantic Café

Foreign Policy Challenges for the US and Europe in the 21st century

MONDAY

June 22nd 10:00am-12:00pm*register

Dear Sir or Madam,

We are pleased to invite you to the third event of our „Euro-Atlantic Café”.

The Centre for Euro-Atlantic Integration and Democracy (CEID) launched a series of discussions about current issues of Hungarian and US foreign policy, supported by the Embassy of the United States in Hungary. We aim to discuss different foreign policy strategies, help understand their background and identify common interests of the two countries. Our purpose is to organize constructive and open debates on foreign and security policy issues.

In our third event, we have the pleasure to host:

Mr. George Friedman, chairman and founder of Stratfor,

Dr. Janne Haaland Matláy, former Secretary of State of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Norway, and

Prof. István Gyarmati, ambassador and board member of CEID.

Date: 10:00-12:00, 22nd June 2015

Venue: Rózsavölgyi Szalon (Budapest, V. Szervita tér 5.)

We would be delighted if you could accept our invitation. Since seats are limited, we would urge you to register at Ms. Noémi Matis (noemi.matis@ceid.hu). Doors open at 9.45 am.

Yours sincerely,

Dániel Bartha

Executive Director, Centre for Euro-Atlantic Integration and Democracy
